

Northeast Farmers Market

Fall 2017 CSA

Customer Application

What is a CSA?

CSA stands for “Community Supported Agriculture.” Typically, customers pay for a “share” of whatever farmers harvest. This is usually delivered to them or picked up once a week, and includes things that are in season. In 2017, vendors from the Northeast Farmers Market will offer an 8-week CSA from October 1st to November 19th. The shares will include a combination of vegetables, meat, bread, eggs, honey, and jam.

How will I get my CSA share?

The shares can be picked up each Sunday (October 1, 2017 to November 19, 2017) between 5:00pm and 6:00pm at 3001 Independence Ave, Kansas City, MO 64123. Or, for an extra $5 delivery charge, we can deliver it to your home on Sundays after 6:00pm.

How much does it cost?

Each week the share will cost $30 (or $30 + $5 delivery charge). You can either arrange to pay before it is picked up/delivered or pay for it when you get it. We accept cash, debit/credit, SNAP or checks (checks can be made out to Northeast Farmers Market). Customers using their SNAP (food stamp) benefits pay half price thanks to the Double Up Food Bucks KC program

What farms contribute to the CSA?

- M&M Gardens (vegetables)
- Fresh from the Field Farms (vegetables)
- Valentine Beef (beef)
- Of the Earth Farm (pork)
- Lovely Day Urban Farm (chicken)
- Pink Pony Farm (jellies)
- The Urban Farming Guys (vegetables, honey)
- Bristle Ridge Farm (bread, eggs)
- Pepper Berries Urban Farm (vegetables, jams)

How do I sign up?

Fill out the information on the back of this paper and email it to NortheastFarmersMarket@gmail.com or mail it to 4209 Norledge Ave, Kansas City, MO 64123. Jenna Wilkins will call you to confirm the information and get started for your first CSA share. Payments, pick-ups, and deliveries are arranged each week.
